The network name and password will be provided to you on the day of the event.

Wired Internet connections are also available.

12 Environmentally Responsible Events

The Conference Centre encourages renters to implement best practices in sustainability when planning their events. This involves special consideration when choosing suppliers, food and means of transportation, as well as managing material, power, water and waste.

More information on environmentally friendly event planning is available from the Quebec Council for Environmentally Responsible Events.

13 Use of Facilities and General Information

13.1 Layout, set-up and tear down

Rooms will be laid out as determined when your rental agreement was signed. Our team will handle room set-up and tear down.

13.2 Hanging displays

It is strictly prohibited to hang posters or other items on the walls or furniture using adhesives, nails, tacks, staples or other materials. Clients wishing to hang decorative items must have them approved by the Conference Centre and ensure that they comply with Fire Department regulations. No decorations may be posted, suspended, hung or affixed without prior written consent from the Conference Centre. Sticky tack (blue tack) is permitted for displaying light items.

13.3 Posters and signs

Easels are available so that you can display posters or signs. Posters and signs are only permitted in the Conference Center or at its entrance on the Mezzanine Level.

13.4 Medical assistance

Should one of your guests require medical assistance during your event, please inform one of the event agents on duty. He or she will contact Security for immediate assistance. Our prevention personnel is trained to treat persons who feel unwell, administer first-aid or perform cardiac resuscitation. If necessary, our personnel will contact emergency services (ambulance, police, firefighters).

13.5 Kitchen: use, equipment and material

The Conference Centre works with accredited caterers who have access to our kitchen, which is equipped with food preparation and service equipment. Only accredited caterers are authorized to use this material and equipment free of charge.

Equipment and material available to caterers
Dishes Available for 40 people or less (maximum of 3 pieces of cutlery per person)	For more than 40 people, the Host must rent dishes, flatware and any other material required for the event. These items may be rented from the supplier of your choice.
Ice machine
Oven, refrigerator and dishwasher

13.6 Storage

The Conference Centre does not have a separate storage area. Therefore, all materials required for your event must be stored in the rental space.

13.7 Non-smoking environment

The building, including the Conference Centre terrace, is a non-smoking space. As the Lessor, we must ensure compliance with all related rules and regulations.

13.8 Automated teller

For the convenience of our guests, an RBC automated teller is available in the building on the ground level near the skating rink in the Atrium Le 1000.

13.9 Distinguished guests

Renters must inform the Conference Centre if a distinguished guest requiring special provisions is scheduled to attend the event. This information will be relayed to Security to ensure appropriate measures are taken.

13.10 Deliveries

No supplies may be brought into the building via the main doors or secondary doors. All deliveries must be directed to the loading dock at 995 Saint-Antoine West during business hours which are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. (closed from 12 p.m. to 1 p.m.).

13.11 Alcohol permits

The Conference Centre does not hold a permit to serve or sell alcohol. The Host assumes full responsibility for all fees related to obtaining an alcohol permit for the Event. A copy of your alcohol permit must be provided to the Conference Centre at least five business days prior to the Event. Only authorized caterers may serve alcoholic beverages at the Conference Centre. All bottles of alcohol must be removed from the rental space as soon as the Host leaves at the end of the Event.

For additional information and to apply for an alcohol permit:

Applications for alcohol permits must be submitted at least 15 days prior to the event.

Régie des alcools, des courses et des jeux

Information: 514-873-3577

Alcohol permit applications

13.12 Photocopies and faxes

The Conference Centre can help you with small quantities of photocopies or faxes (less than 10). If your needs are higher, we advise you to use the services at Bureau en gros, a store located nearby in Central Station.

Bureau en gros – Gare centrale

895 De la Gauchetière St. W.

Montreal, Québec H3B 4G1

Tel.: 514-879-1515

Business hours: Monday to Friday, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

13.13 Exclusive products – non-alcoholic beverages

During your event, you must abide by our exclusive product agreement with Pepsi Cola. Neither hosts nor guests may bring, receive, deliver or consume beverages other than Pepsi products in the rental spaces.

13.14 Surplus food donations

As part of our commitment to sustainable development, the Conference Centre encourages renters to redistribute surplus food to organizations that help people in need.

With your permission, the Conference Centre will contact La Maison du Père, an organization that works with homeless people in Montreal, and offer them the surplus food from your event. This service is available to you free of charge.

13.15 SOCAN fees

SOCAN fees are included with the space rental. SOCAN is the Society of Composers, Authors and Music Publishers of Canada. This organization administers and manages the performing rights for the musical works of its members and members of affiliated international organizations by issuing licenses for the use of their music in Canada.

13.16 Advertising material and the use of trademarks

All posters or advertisements displayed in the building and any reference to the Lessor or the Rental Spaces in advertising material must be approved by the Lessor prior to its posting or publication. Under no circumstances may the Renter record, reproduce or otherwise use the name of the Building or the Lessor, elements that could identify the Building or the Lessor, or trademarks or other intellectual property related to the Building or Lessor, without express consent from the Lessor.

In advertising or informative material distributed to guests, the Host may not promote services that come into competition with the services offered by the Lessor in the Building, including, but not limited to, parking.
